BEARCATS BEAT STILL 7 TO 6

TOUCHDOWN MADE FIRST SEVEN MINUTES

STILL MAKES 45 YD. PASS

Then a Wide End Run Nets Touchdown—Wilson, Messmer and Allan Stars

The State Teachers College football team came out of its game with Still College of Des Moines yesterday with the long end of a 7 to 6 score. Maryville scored her touchdown in the first seven minutes of the game when Allan recovered a blocked punt and ran for a touchdown. The plays that came before this bit of work on Allan's part were mainly responsible for the counter according to Coach E. A. Maynor.

It was Maryville ball on her 23 yard line. Quarterback Beck called Wilson through right tackle. The Trenton boy received the ball, hit the line, wriggled through and reeled off forty-five yards before he was downed. Then Foreman hit the line for twelve more yards. On the next play the ball was fumbled and it was the Osteopath's ball on their 20 yard line. The Still punter dropped back and kicked the ball. It hit one of his men and bounded to the right, away from all the Still team and right in the midst of four or five Bearcats. "Rusty" Allan scooped it up and ran the necessary distance for a touchdown. Beck kicked goal.

The Still touchdown was made with only six minutes of play left in the last period. A forty-five yard pass was completed and then a wide end run netted the touchdown. Coach Maynor said this morning that the long pass was the longest he had seen completed this year. On the try for a point after the touchdown a place kick was blocked.

The referee, Graham of Iowa, in speaking of the individual merit of the different players said that Wilson, Messmer and Allan were three of the best players he had seen this year.

Still College played a passing game. They tried thirty forward flips, only four of which were completed. The Bearcats tried two passes and completed one.

In the first half Maryville out played the Osteopaths but in the second half Coach Maynor made his men play a strictly defensive game. When ever the locals got possession of the ball they punted.

This was a bit of strategy on the part of the Bearcat mentor. Realizing that he had a hard game next week with Warrensburg, he played on the defense, thereby minimizing the chance of injury tto his players.

Still had a heavy team. The backfield was by far the heaviest tackled this year.

Seventeen men made the trip to Des Moines. Maynor played all of them with the exception of Webb, end, who has a bad knee.

Howell England, who was substituted for Leech, played a nice game at half. This was his first real chance and he showed up particularly well on the defense.

The team left Des Moines last night shortly before midnight. Arriving at Ravenwood at 4 o'clock this morning, the rest of the trip was made in automobiles to Maryville.

The line-up at the start of the game yesterday follows—Kirby, c; England and Graham, guards; Messmer and Akars, tackles; Thompson and Allan, ends; Beck, qb; Wilson and Leech, halves; Foreman, fb.

TEN CO. CANDIDATES ANSWER DRY TO QUESTIONS ASKED

Were by County Law Enforcement League to Representative, County Court and Prosecuting Candidates

The Nodaway County Law Enforcement League has recently sent out a questionnaire to candidates for representative, the county court positions and for prosecuting attorney to get their opinion upon the wet and dry issue. The two questions stated were:

Will you support and work for the Eighteenth or Prohibition Amendment, and such enforcement acts, both federal and state, as will make said amendment really effective?

Will you, as far as the office to which you may be elected touches the enforcement of the prohibition law, be active and energetic in the prosecution of the prohibition law violations?

To these questions every one of the ten candidates to whom they were sent answered in the affirmative. The answers were received by H. W. Hull, secretary of the League. These questions were sent only to the candidates for offices that had to do with the enforcement of the law.

STILL DISCUSS COUNTY UNIT

THREE PERSONS WRITE ON BILL TODAY

MRS. F. A. BUSH WRITES

And Answers Eickholt In Regard to Education of Crowder, Pershing and Lincoln

Much interest continues to be shown in the County Unit Bill which will be voted upon next Tuesday. B. Eickholt of Ravenwood continues to voice his opposition in articles sent to the Democrat-Forum. Mrs. F. A. Bush of Maryville today writes an article answering Eickholt's recent article. The other article below was prepared by Grace M. Shepherd, Director of Rural Education of the College.

The articles follow:

S. T. C. Answers

The following is quoted from an article signed by Mr. Eickholt in a recent issue of the Democrat-Forum. "How is one board going to look after the education of all those children that crowded Maryville on School Day in fifteen day's work in one year? This seems like a joke.

Mr. Eickholt has overlooked the fact that the County Unit Bill retains the local districts boards; they will continue to administer all affairs pertaining to the local interests of their respective districts. The six county board members, one-half of them from the south judicial district and one half from the north judicial district chosen at large by voters of county school district from persons living in the county school district will look after those matters only which pertain to the schools as a whole. The bill explicitly gives the county board limited powers;—powers that will assist the local boards; Section 16, County Unit Law.

Even if all the powers were delegated to six board members, the successful administration of the schools would not be a miracle or anything unusual. The board of education in St. Joseph consists of six members. St. Joseph has an enumeration of 17627 school children, while Nodaway County has an enumeration of only 3689 school children. St. Joseph has a total day's attendance of 1,953,922 children. Nodaway County a total attendance of 353,434. Moreover, St. Joseph has a school year of 180 days, the rural schools of Nodaway County 160 days—a number of rural schools have less. St. Joseph affords her children 12 years of school, Nodaway County rural school 8 years.

The schools of St. Joseph with a board of six members are more economically and efficiently administered than the rural schools of North West Missouri.

Mrs. F. A. Bush Writes

Mr. Eickholt, in last night's Democrat-Forum, stated that Mr. Cooper's figures show "the country folk are doing better than the towns as far as the cost per child is concerned." It is true they are spending more money per capita for their children in school; on the other hand, the city child is getting more for the money

SNODGRASS SAYS BREWSTER IS DRY

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE ALSO HAS BREWSTER AS A DRY

IN THIS WEEK'S RADIO

Rev. Snodgrass Writes Brewster Went Through Primary as Dry and Was So Recognized

The Rev. R. E. Snodgrass in this week's Radio writes as follows under the heading "Is Brewster Wet or Dry?" Here is what Mr. Snodgrass says:

On the very eve of the election, there is going a report in this dry section of the state that Brewster is as wet as Reed. Remember there is not a single soul who has ever denied that Reed is wet. There are some things we want to say about this report that Brewster is as wet as Reed.

1. If Brewster is wet now, he has been wet all through this campaign. But he went through the Primary as a dry and was so recognized by the Republican party. He went through most all of the present campaign with a clean bill of health, until within the last week. It is noised about that he is wet. Now, candidly, fellows, if Brewster is wet, don't you think it would have been known long ago and all dry people would have so thought of him early in the primary, or at the time of his announcing for the office? We should be fair and perfectly candid about these matters. What is the reasonable thing about it? Reed was declared a wet right at the start and it has never been disputed Brewster was declared a dry and right on the eve of election it is being reported that he is wet. Something wrong, brother.

2. The Anti-Saloon League declares Brewster to be dry. This organization has opportunities to know the record of these men as we do not. There has never been any question in this organization as to Brewster's stand on the prohibition question. I cannot think of the Anti-Saloon league endorsing a man that is the least bit "Wobbly" on the liquor question. You will not go wrong if you vote for the men they declare to be dry.

3. I have made an honest effort to know the truth about this report. I have been making some special and personal investigations and my belief that Brewster is dry has been confirmed at every juncture. I wrote Brewster a personal letter and asked for a personal reply as to his stand on the liquor question. The reply came from his secretary and is self explanatory. We give it in full here.

Kansas City, Oct 27, 1922.
Rev. R. E. Snodgrass, Pastor,
First Christian Church,
Maryville, Mo.
Dear Sir:

Your letter of October 25th received during Mr. Brewster's absence from the city. He will not return until a day or two before the election and hence, will not, perhaps, have an opportunity of personally answering your letter.

I have no hesitancy, however, in quoting you Mr. Brewster's exact language in reply to an inquiry from the Rev. Wm. Forney Hovis, Pastor, Grand Avenue Methodist Church, this city, October 16th, on this subject:

"It seems strange to me that you have any doubt concerning my position upon the enforcement of the 18th amendment. Every newspaper in this state has construed my position as absolutely dry. You are the only minister who has questioned my position. You, of course, are entitled to your opinion. I have stated repeatedly and these statements have appeared in the public press that I would never consent to the manufacture or sale of any beverage, which was in the slightest degree intoxicating, call it light wine, or beer or anything else. That has been my position all along and that is my position now. I had thought that it had been made perfectly clear."

I assure you Mr. Brewster will appreciate your interest in his behalf. I trust the above will meet your challenge as satisfactorily as a personal letter from Mr. Brewster since it is his own personal statement.

Thanking you for your letter, I am
Yours very truly,
ELMER K. REED, Sec'y.

The above letter should make Mr. Brewster's position upon the liquor issue as clear as it can be stated in our language. Mr. Brewster is a dry or else he is a liar and a fraud and had he been this, it would have been discovered before this.

4. Knowing that Mr. Brewster had attended the Linwood Presbyterian Church in Kansas City, I thought a letter from the Pastor of that church might help to know whether Mr. Brewster is wet or not. It is now being reported you know, that Brewster is a drinking man and has even been drunk since the opening of this campaign. The letter from Dr. Rogers, pastor, may help:

Kansas City, Mo.,
Oct. 28, 1922.

Dear Dr. Snodgrass:

I am glad to tell you that Mr. R. R. Brewster formerly attended our services very frequently, and now that he lives in the Country Club District

OIL MAN TO START WORK DRILLING AGAIN NEAR BARNARD

C. M. Watson, Who Had Formerly Drilled Between Barnard and Bolckow to Try Again.

From Barnard Bulletin.

C. M. Watson, oil man and driller, who was in Barnard several weeks ago and started the project of a test well between Barnard and Bolckow to be drilled to a depth of at least 3500 feet unless oil be struck sooner was in Barnard Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, looking after the leases and preparing to locate the place where the first test well should be sunk.

In an interview with Mr. Watson he stated that the country looked like an oil country here and that he had great faith in it. "I have found several places that look like good prospects for a good well," said Mr. Watson, "but the actual location of the well will be made by my geologist. One well is not enough to properly test this as an oil country. Should we strike an oil well of commercial value it will probably take several other wells to prove that the country is really an oil country.

Mr. Watson has twenty shallow wells working and pumping oil near Excelsior Springs, Mo., at this time. He has ordered his outfit shipped from Sheridan, Wyoming and ten carloads were shipped from that point on October 27.

YOUNG MAN IS KILLED BY GAS

ORVILLE BELL OF GRAHAM ASPHYXIATED

OCCURRED AT R. GEX SR.'S

Boy Had Gone Out to Pump up Pressure Tank—Was Found 1½ Hours Later

Orville Bell, 21 years old, was found dead about 9:30 o'clock last night in the engine room which furnishes the power for the Robert Gex, Sr., farm near Graham. Dr. W. J. Findley of Graham who was called, examined the boy and said that death was due to the carbon monoxide fumes from the exhaust of the engine. That it was accidental is the opinion of all who knew the dead boy.

Young Bell had been working for some time at the home of Robert Gex, Jr. Last night he left the house after eating a good supper saying that he was going to the engine house to pump up the pressure tank. He was in the best of spirits. About an hour and a half later when Mr. Gex, Jr., crossing the street to his parents home noticed that a light was burning in the engine house and becoming suspicious went out to investigate. Mr. Gex had no idea that Orville was there as he thought the boy had gone over to a neighbor's house.

Upon opening the almost airtight room he found the dead body. Failing to get in touch with the county physician, Mr. Gex called Dr. Findley of Graham who pronounced death caused by asphyxiation by the gas fumes.

Orville Bell was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell of Graham. On August 9 his father was tried in the circuit court accused of stabbing a man near Graham. In the first trial the sentence was three years in the penitentiary but the jury of the second trial, Oct. 6, practically acquitted him by giving him a fine of fifty dollars.

Young Bell is survived by his parents and two brothers and one sister at home and two married sisters living at Pattonsburg. No funeral arrangements will be made until the arrival of his sisters from Pattonsburg.

All Looted Mail Has Been Recovered in Robbery Near St. Louis This Morning

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Two railroad bandits were shot and killed here this morning when they held up the mail cars of one of Frisco Railroad trains.

When the bandits left the train the throttle was wide open and ran wild for sxiteen miles, stopping dead at Nielly's landing.

Authorities lay in waiting for the bandits and both men were riddled with a shower of bullets. All of the loot was recovered according to the reports reaching here.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAM GIVEN BLANKETS

THIS MORNING AT THE PEP ASSEMBLY

BY ALUMNI AND FRIENDS

Football Boys Also Give Coach Lawrence a Beautiful Diamond Masonic Ring

What might be called the 'peppiest' of pep assemblies was held at the high school this morning at 10:30 o'clock. The assembly was in charge of the M. H. S. Alumni Association and the program was a surprise to all of the students.

The program started with the school songs and yells which were given with a great deal of pep by the student body.

After these songs Superintendent L. E. Ziegler gave his sympathy to the "inmates of Sing-Sing prison" and then introduced Dr. Jesse Miller, Jr. "Doc" spoke concerning the Alumni and regretted the inactiveness of the body up to date. But he added that the organization had now come to life and were behind the school in all their work.

Following his talk Dr. K. R. Malotte on behalf of the Alumni Association and friends, presented sixteen athletic blankets to Coach Lawrence's squad. The blankets are black and have a large Kelley-green M in the center, in each corner a smaller M and a green border. The blankets were displayed on the stage. These were accepted by Supt. Ziegler on behalf of the athletic organization. Mr. Ziegler expressed his appreciation to the Alumni for the much needed presents. One of the blankets was placed on Captain O'Banion who then presented each man on the squad with one. The men who received these blankets were O'Banion, Carstens, Willoughby, Fannon, Masters, Chick, Miller, Bush, Epperson, Hartman, Mountjoy, Curfman, Phipps, Jones and Ogden.

A snake dance was led by Miss Lois Nash, coach of the girls' basketball team. All of the student body joined in the procession which was led through the halls and rooms of the building.

After the dance, Captain Harold O'Banion, on behalf of the football squad, presented Coach Frank Lawrence with a gold Masonic ring, inlaid with a diamond as a gift of appreciation from the members of the team.

The Rev. J. A. Cooper was called on for a talk by the student body of the school. Mr. Cooper dealt with the three things which it takes to make a winning team, and which Maryville has, the coach, the men, and the school spirit.

The assembly was then turned into a pep meeting, under George Aley, chief yell leader, and many of the songs and yells of the school were given.

The high school team plays Lafayette High of St. Joseph here tomorrow. Coach Lawrence is expecting a stiff fight and the dope has it that the St. Joseph team considerably outweighs the local team.

Tentative plans have been made for a game with the Stanberry High School in event the Maryville team wins its two remaining games. This would make both teams have a .1000 and they would play November 17, at Stanberry.

Mrs. Arch Carter and little daughter, Betty Lee, will come this evening from Kirksville to spend a few days with Mrs. Carter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Everhart.

MAYFIELD'S NAME NOT ON TICKET

TEX. K. K. K. CANDIDATE TO BE KEPT OFF.

MAY "RUBBER STAMP" IT

Hearing for Permanent Injunction to be Held Tomorrow—Peddy's Name Also Off.

Dallas, Tex., Nov. 3—The name of Earl B. Mayfield, Democratic nominee for the United States Senate and the Ku Klux Klan candidate, will have to be "rubber stamped," on the ballots for next week's election if it is put on the ballot.

It was thought this afternoon that the way had been provided for his name to go on the ballot, but the fifth district court granted a temporary injunction to prevent it. The hearing for the injunction was set for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The name of George E. B. Peddy, Republican candidate does not appear on the ballot because it was held that he was not nominated through the primary as called for by law.

In regard to Mayfield's candidacy, it was heard from many sides that voters would write in the name of their candiadte.

invested, owing to better business administration, which is the very thing offered to the rural districts by the County Unit Bill.

General Enoch Crowder received the fundamentals of his education in the country school, but the writer failed to mention that he graduated from West Point Military Academy. General Pershing went to one of these rural schools. He finished his education at the normal at Kirksville, Missouri, and at West Point. Where are the millions of children who received the fundamentals in the rural schools? We hear nothing of them. Abraham Lincoln's entire time in school did not exceed one year. Shall that be used as an argument against better schools? These men became great in spite of the rural schools. Instances are on record of great men having received the fundamentals of the three R's at mother's knee, but no one advocates that sort of school for all children of today.

Missouri is proud of her schools, and of her school houses, including the box car type, but Missouri is not satisfied. Her destiny is in the hands of her future citizens, the children of today. Cost what it may, an increase in taxes, or an imaginary loss of control, the end justifies the means.

MRS. F. A. BUSH.

B. Eickholt Writes

The State Teachers College gives the valuation of the rural districts that would come under this proposed law at $36,157,091. This, I suppose, is last year's assessment. Now, last year some of the farms in Nodaway County were assessed for more than the land would have brought on the market. What will this year's assessment be? I venture to say that it will be about one-fourth less than last year, for I would have you know that farms are no longer the money makers that they have been. The 133 rural schools in the county are being taught by 165 teachers. This proposed law provides a 40 cent levy on the one hundred dollars valuation. I want everyone of the teachers that is in favor of this law to figure this out for themselves.

A word to the wise is enough.

PICKERING.

(By O. G. Null).

Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Lincoln and daughter, Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Lincoln and son, Wilbur, drove to Council Bluffs, Iowa, last Saturday to visit the family of their brother, O. A. Lincoln.

Mrs. Orlo Lincoln and daughter, remained for a longer visit when the other members of the party returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Jones of Maryville came up last Saturday and spent the week end with the family of her son, Sanford E. Jones, returning to her home Monday.

There has been considerable sickness here this week, though no serious cases. Mrs. Adeline Alexander has been confined to her room for the past week at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. M. Craven.

Two of the teachers in the Pickering school, Miss Helen Spangler and Mrs. Ruby Eggers Moore have been out of school a part of the week on account of illness.

Violet Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Robinson, has had a partial paralysis of one side of her face caused by the bursting of a small blood vessel.

The viewpoint one has makes a lot of difference as to the way things appear in this world. For instance, the fellows who filled the streets with boxes, barrels, stock tanks, cream cans and rolls of wire fence on Hallowe'en night evidently looked upon their action as fun, while the owners of the various articles misplaced looked upon it as "downright cussedness" on the part of the perpetrators, especially as they had to get out in the rain and mud to gather up their belonging the next morning.

The rains the fore part of the week have interfered with corn husking as the fields are so soft that it will be impossible to haul out a full load for several days. Those who had begun husking report the yield and quality of the corn as very good.

Postmaster Wray made a trip of inspection over the mail routes from this office last week. He found the roads in pretty good shape generally, though he found several culverts and bridges in poor shape. This was the case especially on the portion of route 1 which is in Independence and Jackson townships, also in northeast Polk township.

Sunday school at 10 a. m. at the M. E. church next Sunday. Preaching service at 10 a. m. Subject, "Church Literature." Preaching service also at 7:30 p. m.

The ladies of the congregation will hold a market and serve lunch in the Wray Hardware Co., building on election day.

District Superintendent Ernest Snider will hold quarterly conference on Monday, Nov. 13, at the church.

Regular services at the Christian church next Sunday. Bible School at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m. Subject of morning sermon, "God's Expectation From His Vineyard." Subject of evening sermon, "Political Religion Versus Religious Politics."

C. E. Society meets at 6:30 p. m.

The missionary society met Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Harmon. On account of the condition of the roads the attendance was not so large as usual, though an interesting program was rendered.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Porter returned last Tuesday from a six weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Ohio. They spent about three weeks in Coshocton County, where they resided some forty years ago and then spent several days at Massillon and Cleveland with relatives.

Mr. Porter says farmers in that section of the country are greatly handicapped by lack of help on their farms and as a consequence many farms have been neglected and run down appearance.

DECEMBER 16 IS LAST DAY FOR FILING CLAIMS

Veterans May Not Apply for Vocational Training After This Date

December 16 is the last day for the filing of claims for vocational training by those entitled to them, according to a letter received by the local office of the Veterans' Bureau from the district office at St. Louis.

In June 1921, Congress made an appropriation to cover deficiencies in appropriation for that year and previous years and inserted a clause that read: "That any person entitled under provisions of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act, as amended, to take vocational training, must make application therefor within eighteen months from the date of the approval of this act."

The interpretation of this act as expressed by M. E. Head, manager in the ninth district for the Bureau, is that all claims to the Bureau must be submitted in writing on or before this date. Any application bearing a postmark of this date, or sooner, must receive attention from the Bureau, regardless of the date on which it reaches them. Any statement that the trainee desires training or that he desires to be considered for training is to be taken to mean an application. This ruling does not mean that men must be in training by this date, but that they must have made application before it. Therefore no applications filed later than this can be considered by the Bureau.

Many Apples Shipped

Shipments from the barreled apple areas have been double those of last season, plainly showing the heavier production in these sections, according to the United States Department of Agriculture. To October 1 official reports indicate a total movement of approximately 15,000 cars. That is about half as many as were shipped during the entire 1921-22 season.

Insist upon Kellogg's the original Corn Flakes —they're wonderful

"Say, Mazie, I hope we don't have any bites while we're eating Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 'cause I like Kellogg's so much that the fish will get away!"

Kellogg flavor and Kellogg crispness are so different that there can be no comparison between Kellogg's Corn Flakes and imitations.

Little folks quickly say, "Get Kellogg's, Mother—please," because Kellogg's are never tough or leathery or hard to eat! Kellogg's are always so delicious that big bowls quickly disappear and eager little mouths appeal for more! And big folks appreciate the superiority of Kellogg's because their flavor is so inviting. Kellogg's are wonderful!

Insist upon Kellogg's—the kind in the RED and GREEN box that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Kellogg's Corn Flakes. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT!

HE WAS AND IS NOW THE WORLD'S GREAT PHYSICIAN

When Jesus Spoke the Paralyzed Man Took His Bed and Walked Off

(By C. L. Ficklin, editor of the DeKalb County Herald, Maysville, Mo.)

I read not a great while ago what an evolutionist had to say about God's concern for people. The gist of it was this:

"People pay attention to individuals. God looks after the species but he does not pay any attention to the individual."

Do you believe that?

I want to tell you a little story. It is a story that a good doctor named Dr. Luke tells about a Great Doctor. It is a story about the Doctor, a crowd and a sickman.

The Great Doctor was speaking. The crowd was gathered around, eager, intent, pressing in, every fellow looking out for himself.

Some men brought a paralyzed man up to the edge of the crowd. But they couldn't get through. What chance has a sick or crippled man in a crowd, an impatient crowd—he's likely to get walked on and trampled on. The crowd didn't care for the sick man.

But the Great Doctor did.

The people did not care for the individual cripple.

But God's son the Great Doctor, did care.

He gave special attention to this sick man while the crowd jostled and jammed and shoved.

Let us revise the evolutionist's position in this paralytic's case and let us conclude that God through His Son the Great Doctor gave a much more attentive concern to the individual than the people did.

And that's just exactly the way Jesus always was. I don't want to say anything smart or wise or big in my comment on next Sunday's Sunday School lesson. I just want simply to speak about our Savior as a tender, loving, gentle figure, the most loving and tender and gentle the world ever saw. I just want to speak about how He had an undividual, personal, intensive, loving interest in people—people high, low, far, near. There never has been and there never will be on this earth such far-reaching, searching-out, personal interest, individual interest taken in individuals as was taken by God's Son—the Great Physician.

Do you remember when the children came up to Him—and people about did not want to be bothered with the children?

He had time to love the children and to shower upon them the glory of His attentive heart.

Do you remember when people for got the forgotten man or woman—and Jesus remembered and gave His personal, patient glorious attention to—

Blind Bartemaeus at the roadside?
Zaccheus up in a tree.
The woman taken in sin.
The lady who touched the hem of His garment.
The publican He ate with.
The syrophoenician woman.
The outcast lepers, the down-and out men, the thief on the cross.
He was a wonderfully attentive physician.

And He was so perfectly alert.
He heard every cry.
He saw every twinge of suffering.
He was so marvelously sensitive that nothing escaped Him. Wouldn't you always like to have a doctor who knows all about your case, and who loves you with a perfect love—and who is so awake and alert as to be aware of every turn of your case? There's no other Physician like this Physician.

I heard about a case.

The little girl was sick. She was the only little girl in the family and as sweet as the morning light. The pride of a strong daddy and a womderful mother gathered about her by day and by night. But she got sick in spite of all. She grew thin. Her eyes came out large as she grew pale, and it seemed like she just put the growing wonder and anxiety and pain of her heart into those eyes as they got bigger and brighter.

She was a mighty sick child.

The daddy and mamma sent for two doctors. One was an old doctor and the other was the young doctor of the town. They examined the little girl and held a consultation.

The old doctor was supposed to be wiser and better informed than the young doctor. He had scholarship and experience, and the young doctor of course let the old doctor take the lead— the old doctor was supposed to know.

They seemed to be careful in going over the case while the daddy and the mother stood by. And after they had consulted they laid out a course of treatment.

But it missed—

Why so?

The old doctor had got hard of hearing, and he failed to hear the murmur of the little girl's heart. And the whole treatment was wrong because the old doctor's sensitiveness was blunted, his perception impaired, his alertness dulled.

There's no blunted sensitiveness on the part of the Great Doctor.

He knows it all.

There is no heart murmur that He does not hear.

A whole chapter could be written on the difference between the Aliveness of the common physician and the Aliveness of the Great Doctor. There is fine consolation in the thought that He knows it all.

He healed a lot of people of bodily disease.

But one of the crowning glories of the Great Physician is His unerring mastery over the sickness of the soul.

I heard a fellow talking the other day and he put it forth like this:

"I believe if a man pays his debts and treats his family good and is honest, he will be taken care of all right when he dies. I don't think you have to accept Christ."

That notion is sometimes presented. It is unutterably silly.

The Great Physician never made a mistake. He was perfect in the wisdom He had. All other doctors have made a lot of mistakes. You are not a doctor at all, and you have made a lot of them. The most miserable of all the tragic farces of earth is made by the sin sick man who prescribes his own remedy for his own sickness of soul.

We all had better do absolutely what the Great Doctor says to do.

Do not attempt to write your own prescription.

COLLEGE HEADS ATTACK BETS ON SCHOOL GAMES

Michigan University Officials Say It's Vicious Attack on Athletic and Shatters Morals.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Nov. 3. — Denouncing betting by students on football games as a vicious attack on intercollegiate athletics, Michigan University authorities have started a crusade to stamp out the practice. In statements issued to the press both President Marion Burton and Fielding H. Yost, director of intercollegiate athletics, severely criticized the evil.

"There is no occasion for discussing the morals of betting. It is an attempt to get something for nothing and in the long run the world is not made up that way," said President Burton. "There is occasion for pointing out from an intensely practical point of view that betting is shortsighted and a vicious attack on intercollegiate athletics.

"The student who bets on his team, thinking that thereby he is giving genuine loyalty to his university, is deceiving himself. Betting breeds unjust criticism of the team, tends to shatter student morals and substitutes commercialism for sportsmanship. Let us play the game for the game's sake."

"Students have no right to bet dad's hard earned money and then have to explain things to dad," said "Hurry up" Yost.

"Usually they are not betting their own money and if they are they can't afford to lose it," said Yost. "As a result if they lose they find themselves having to explain to Dad or having to go without things they should have. Before they know it they are finding fault with the team, the coaches and everything from the waterboy to the president. And all of this because they lost a few dollars which they had no business betting.

"When players know that there are huge sums of money at stake they are apt to lose sight of the greater ideals for which they are playing. As a result the game suffers."

A WOLF IS CAPTURED IN AN EXCITING CHASE YESTERDAY

An exciting wolf hunt was staged yesterday morning north of Conception when the dogs and Swinford and Thompson kept the chase for over two hours. The dogs were finally beaten out of their prey when a man crippled the wolf ahead of the dogs. There were several people in the hunt and thoroughly enjoyed the chase given by the dogs.

Baking Powder—
that's the big thing in successful baking

It determines failure or success in baking, more than any other ingredient.

If you do not always have satisfactory bakings, change to Calumet for just one trial.

It is pure: containing only such ingredients as have been officially approved by U. S. Food Authorities.

Within the Calumet factories — the largest and most sanitary on earth—hundreds of skilled workers clad in white are busily engaged in producing the baking powder that is used by millions. Human hands never touch it. Its sale is 2½ times as much as that of any other brand. Pure in the making—pure in the baking.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

The Real Issues of the Present Senatorial Campaign Will Be Discussed

of Kansas City he attends the church of Dr. George Hamilton Combs quite often. He enjoys the personal friendship of many of the ministers of Kansas City, and has been most helpful in assisting us in our general church work. He is a popular speaker to the men of the churches, and I have always felt that he is a Christian at heart, though he has not affiliated himself with any church. His mother, who passed away recently was a member of my church.

Mr. Brewster has never had any affiliation with the liquor interests, and I am sure is making the present fight honestly as a dry candidate. He is absolutely free from the use of liquor himself, and most guarded in his whole life—not alone for his own sake, but for the sake of his three fine boys and one daughter.

I am glad to write you these facts in the interest of an honest devoted American citizen. I would not write these things if they were not so, and inasmuch as the contest is along moral lines I sincerely hope that good men of both parties will free themselves of any other allegiance, and vote for that which is absolutely right—and in this instance it is Mr. Brewster.

Cordially yours,
HARRY C. RODGERS, Pastor.

5. Now, voters, there is but one conclusion regarding this "Brewster Wet" talk. That is, that it is a patched up, campaign lie, started by some one in this community to counteract the "Reed Wet" argument and to hold in line the dry democrats. But I believe for the reason stated above that the dry voters of this community are not to be "doped" with any such stuff. Reed is undeniably wet. Brewster is said to be wet by a few politicians who may not have made any personal effort to know the truth, while thousands of the best people in the state know Brewster to be dry. Now, we ask, which is the better risk? If you are really dry and want to maintain dry legislation, what is your duty when you come to the polls November 7th.

We believe that some good people have been rather upset by these recent reports. We have given this information just simply to steady the dry voters and we believe that all who read these lines will decide that their moral and Christian duty is to support the man who is recognized by practically the whole population of our state to be dry.

Read the Following Suggestions.

1. The final results will probably rest with the women voters. All dry voters vote without fail. The wets will line up every voter and hundreds who are not legal voters. It is a matter of Christian duty.

2. You dry democrats, be sure to vote for Brewster. It is not enough, not to vote for Reed. Vote for Brewster.

3. Be sure to vote your ballot correctly. Study the instructions carefully and make no blunder.

4. Don't be disturbed by any campaign talk that might be started just prior to the election. It is a hard fought battle and every dry must be established so well that he cannot be disturbed. Brewster is dry and Reed is wet.

5. All liquor interests and organizations are working for Reed. All dry organizations are working for Brewster. This is evidence enough. With which crowd do you want to be classed? It is up to you.

Will the United State Backslide?

This is the sermon subject for next Sunday night. We will take up the issues, the real issues of the present Senatorial campaign. The evidence will be gone into and we are anxious that everyone interested in this campaign be present. It will be the last and we trust the best argument yet given in defense of right. We will be able to say many things that we cannot write for want of space. Whatever your views, come and hear the matter discussed. You will not be abused.

ROAD CONTRACTS OF 3 1-2 MILLION TO BE LET DEC. 1

Most of These State System Contracts Will be on the Secondary Roads.

Jefferson City, Nov. 3.—This statement was given out here yesterday by the office of the state highway commission:

The state highway commission is planning to bring up for letting about December 1, approximately 3½ million dollars worth of work on the state bond issue system. A majority of the work brought up at the next letting will be on the secondary system.

The commission is making a special effort to bring up for letting sections that require fills and bridging prior to the improvement of the road with hard surfacing material. In a great many places where large fills should be made, and new bridges built, the work is on new location, or on sections of road which have heretofore been surfaced.

The main features that permit work to be brought up for an early letting, are, first, the location of the road is such that it will insure proper service to the traveling public, and economy in the construction and maintenance of the road; second, where the surveys have been made so that plans may be completed with the limited forces which we have available at this time and which is not busy in supervising construction work now in progress; third, where we have the right of way for all relocations and widening of existing highways that is needed to enable the commission to build the type of road that will suit the present and future traffic requirements.

On sections of road where relocations are necessary for both economy and service to the traveling public, they are being made just as rapidly as possible. As soon as the proper route has been determined, complete surveys will be made so that the local people may have an opportunity to secure the necessary right-of-way. We hope to have the majority of our surveys complete within the near future, so that the local people may have ample time to provide the right-of-way, and so that the work can be brought up for letting without unnecessary delay.

The commission expects to have a large majority of surveys and plans completed before January 1, so that it may use some discretion in picking sections of work for grading and draining, as this needs to be done considerably in advance of surfacing the road.

LOCAL FEDERAL TAXES REDUCED $9,456,619

Cancellations and Decreases Affecting Income and Other Assessments

"Reductions in Federal taxes, which are effective for the current year, will save the taxpayers of the Kansas City district the enormous sum of $9,456,619.28, according to a special survey of the cancellations and decreases in tax rates provided by the Revenue Act. of 1921, completed by Internal Revenue Collector Noah Crooks.

"The reduction in taxes for 1922 is approximately as follows:

Income tax	$8,064,689.19
Transportation tax	680,573.55
Sales & Luxury tax	711,356.54

"While the transportation, sales and luxury tax cancellations became effective January 1st of this year, the income tax reduction covers 1921 as well as 1922 and thereafter.

"During the four years the transportation tax was operative, the Kansas City district paid Uncle Sam $2,722,294.20 in transportation tax, divided as follows:

Freight	$1,433,902.96
Passenger & Pullman berths	1,281,694.08
Express	6,697.16

"This means that in the last four years $64,487,657.00 was expended in the Kansas City district for transportation charges alone. Of this amount $47,796,765.00 was for freight charges, $669,716.00 for express and $16,021,176.00 for passenger fares and Pullman berths.

"In the great income tax reduction the greatest number of those affected would be those filing on incomes of less than $5,000 and there are 58,733 taxpayers of this class in this district. The new exemption allows heads of families $2,500 and an additional $400 for each dependent. This means an increased exemption of $700.00 for a married couple with one dependent or a tax saving of $28.00

"Attention is called to the fact that the relief afforded by the decreased taxation affects every person in the district who travels, pays freight, sends an express package, buys a Pullman berth, takes a drink of soda water, or who has a taxable income. In other words, the relief afforded reaches all classes.

"Although the Kansas City district faces tax reduction of more than nine million dollars annually, it is hoped that the total collections for the coming year will not be materially affected. The market expansion in every class of business in the Kansas City district should furnish sufficient new taxes to absorb the nine millions wiped out by the last revenue act.

Mrs. J. B. Saunders and baby daughter, Olive Josephine, of Greeley, Colo., arrived in Maryville yesterday to spend several weeks with Mrs. Saunders' parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Alkire, and Mr. Saunders' father, A. D. Saunders, and family.

LADIES ESPECIALLY INVITED

GIRLS ARE SALICITONS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL ELEVEN

Many Calls from Feminine Voices After Every Game that the Bearcats Play

From all indications the feminine element at the State Teachers College and in the city of Maryville is exceedingly interested in the Bearcats. After every game which the College team has played away from home, the telephone at the Democrat-Forum is kept ultra-busy with inquiries as to the game and, strange to say, the majority of the calls are from the weaker sex.

Some of the girls just ask if any news has been received but questions like, "How did our boys come out?" and "Did our team win?" are numerous.

Then when they are told the score, when it has been in favor of the locals little chirps of glee or prolonged "Oh's", and when the score favors the other side some more "Oh's" of a different character.

Yes, the girls are strong for the Bearcats.

The fodder is in the shock and the husky corn huskers are busy all over Nodaway county. Remember the husking bees of the old days? Remember the red ear and its reward. Oh! Boy! wouldn't you like to attend another one again?

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE FOR

represented Nodaway County in the 49th and 50th Assemblies, has had legislative experience and can get in the harness and begin work on the very first day of the session. My state wide acquaintance with members of the Assembly and legislative experience will give me a decided advantage. This will be a critical session as to roads, we must get all we can while the getting is good. I served on the Committee on Roads and Highways, Ways and Means, Agriculture, Normal Schools, Township Organization, and other minor committees. I made good. My record is one to be proud of. Here is some of my work to be found in the Revised Statutes, 1919:

Vol. 2, Chapter 50, Section 6203, Page 1918, Mutual Automobile Ins. Co., organization of insurance against theft.

Vol. 3, Chapter 98, Section 10891, Page 3410—State Highway Dept., organization of requiring they hold meetings regularly on the second Tuesday in each month. Before this section was amended there was no regular meeting date, which made it very inconvenient for those living some distance from the Capital wishing to meet the members.

Vol. 3, Chap. 98, Section 10899, Page 3404—Morgan-Job Amendment to Haws Road Law, which has brought back out of the road fund to Nodaway County, $60,000.

Vol. 3, Section 10918, Page 3411, General Road Law, providing for the rounding of corners and cutting brush and weeds that obstruct the view.

Vol. 3, Section 10942, Page 3421. Township Organization, Special Road Districts. Providing for collecting of tax in special road districts.

Vol. 3, Chapter 102, Sec. 11361, Page 3570, renewal of Certificates. Providing a just consideration of the old first grade certificate.

Vol. 3, Chapter 111, Section 12521, Page 3915. Providing penalty for giving or selling narcotic drugs to inmates of the penitentiary, reformatory, or industrial home, without consent of the physician.

The Amendment to the $60,000,000 bond issue providing the money should be spent in "every county of the state," was far-reaching and the only footing counties situated like Nodaway have to fight for their just share.

As a member of the Committee on Normal Schools, we revised the Normal School Law and changed the name to State Teachers College. As a member of the Committee on Agriculture, we put over one of the best programs in the interest of agriculture in the history of the state.

A Model Pure Seed Law, before this was passed Missouri farms was the dumping ground for impure and mixed seeds.

A New Cooperative Law, designed especially to foster the organization of agricultural and horticultural societies for better marketing.

The New Farm Census Law, this act will gather through the assessor's and State Board of Agriculture, facts that will give the producer a knowledge of the farm resources, and a more favorable recognition of this State throughout the United States.

The Live Stock Indemnity Law, providing a new schedule of indemnity payments for diseased live stock slaughtered.

The New Dairy Law, placing this industry on an equal legal footing with the dairy states to the north of us.

As these laws are tried out they will need be amended, the farm industry is the basic industry upon which all other industries depend, the intention of these laws is to foster a more profitable Agriculture.

No one can charge me with being a "Pea Nut" partisan in the legislature, I have repeatedly refused to trail after any political band wagon in legislature work. I have always remained steadily on the job from the first meeting until the last bill was signed. I can only promise you that I will give everything there is in me to the best interest on Nodaway County and the State at large as I see it. I am at your service if you want me.

Yours,
WILLIAM JOB.

HIS GUN FAILS, SO WESTERN MAN "BULLDOGS" A BIG BUCK

Arvada, Wyo., Nov. 3—Becoming provoked at an unmanageable gun, N. P. Brown, member of the Sheridan City Fire Department is credited with "bull-dogging" a buck deer in real Western style. Brown cornered the animal in a draw along Powder River, where he was hunting and succeeded in grasping the antlers of the buck and, after a terrific battle, choking the deer to unconsciousness.

THE HUFF CASE HAS STARTED IN HARLAN

Motion for Continuance First Phase of the Case—State Asks Prompt Trial.

From the Clarinda Herald.

This Monday morning in Harlan Judge Cullison is on the bench, to start trial of the case transferred from Page County, State of Iowa vs. George Huff and Walter Huff, on the charge of robbery of the Kramers east of Shambaugh in August a year ago.

The first happening scheduled to start the trial at Harlan is a motion filed by the defendants' attorneys, Hess, Stephens and Shelby Cullison, for a continuance of the case. Four reasons for continuance are given, because the defense states its inability to procure the present of four witnesses whose testimony they deem quite important.: The four witnesses are Dale Fine and Earl Watson who are stated to be absent from the state so no notices can be served on them, A. W. Smith of Elmo who refuses to cross the state line to testify and is beyond the reach of the Iowa officers, and Mrs. Walter Huff who for family reasons will be unable to appear as a witness until the next term of court.

A further reason is given that the state has served notice on the defense of sixteen additional witnesses being called to the trial, and the defense has not time before the case begins of arranging to meet the testimony of these additional witnesses.

As this paper goes to press it is understood that this motion of the defense is scheduled to begin Jan. 3, under Judge Woodruff. Judge Cullison at a former term in Clarinda, in granting a transfer to Shelby County, stated very strongly and positively that the trial must be hurried, as one of the material witnesses for the state is a man nearly one hundred years old, so delay must not be permitted. It is presumed accordingly that the defense will have to make a very strong case to have the continuance granted.

NATIONAL RED CROSS HAS DONE GREAT WORK PAST YEAR

As some of the activities of the national Red Cross the local chapter has given some of the work done by this organization in the Southwest District Division $1,441,486 during the past year in disasters.

The Red Cross received 72 calls for aid, with 145,000 in need and an estimated property damage of $30,000,000.

In the Southwest district alone disasters were reported and work done at the following places: Brazos, Colo.; Perry County, Mo.; Jamestown, Ark.; Donana County, New Mexico; San Antonio, Tex.; Robertson County, Texas; Clayton County, Iowa, Burlington, Kansas, East Arkansas, Fort Worth, Texas; Rio Grande Valley, Texas; Grasonia, Ark.; Lorimer County, Okla.; Beaumont, Texas; Runnels County, Texas; Callahan County, Texas; Nueces County, Texas and Jamestown, Arkansas.

After listing the above work of the district, Mr. Roseberry chairman of Executive Committee of Nodaway County Red Cross, says that it seems that every man, woman and child should belong to this great organization by having at least a $1.00 membership.

A suit was filed in the Circuit court today by the First National Bank of St. Joseph against C. A. Gates on a note.

"JOIN NOT TO GET BUT TO GIVE" SAYS A. A. U. W.

13,000 College Women Guided by This Slogan—Maryville Has a Chapter.

The American Association of University Women, formerly known as the Association of Collegiate Alumnae, represents 13,000 college alumnae from 124 colleges, striving together for the advancement of education and the improvement of social conditions.

"Join, not to get but to give," says the association. Members of the organization are kept in touch with the thought and activities of other college women, from all the colleges and universities. They strive to influence educational and other social legislation, both state and national.

The Missouri division of the organization has two principal purposes. One is to encourage higher education among Missouri girls and to get as many women students in the colleges and universities of the state as possible. The other is to further legislation dealing with women and children in industry. A definite program has been formulated to improve working conditions, hours of labor and wages of Missouri's working women.

The organization gives the member a chance to pass on the opportunity she has enjoyed. By herself she could not support a scholarship, but when she is working with 13,000 other women, she can do that and more.

An European Fellowship and a Latin American Fellowship are maintained by the association. It also pays the expenses of a woman student each year in the Marine Laboratories in Naples.

Many committees are kept up by the organization, which keeps the members in touch with current affairs and gives them a chance to help influence big activities.

Through the influence of a committee on international relations, a similar national organization of college women has been formed in Canada, and a branch of the association has been created in Japan.

The committee on educational legislation has done much to connect up the efforts of the organization with progressive educational legislation.

A committee on vocational opportunities for women has encouraged branches of the organization to do vocational guidance work both for high school and college students and to found and maintain bureaus of occupation for trained women.

The organization also maintains a national committee for the study of the housing problem, a problem which with the conditions created by the war, has become acute. Already a residence hall for the college women has been provided by the organization in Washington, D. C.

In co-operation with the British Federation of University Women, the American organization is endeavoring to establish an international hall of residence in London for University women. Each year more women go to London to take advantage of educational and research facilities, but only a few can be housed by the residential colleges.

The British Federation has an opportunity to secure for a residence hall, the famous historical building of Crosby Hall which was built in the fifteenth century, and was originally part of the mansion of Sir John Crosby. It is one of the few buildings that escaped the fire of 1666 and has many historical associations.

The Association has five branches in Missouri—at Columbia, Kansas City, Maryville, St. Louis and Warrensburg.

TOWER STAFF HOLDS FIRST MEETING THIS AFTERNOON

The first meeting of the staff of the Tower, the State Teachers College annual, was held this afternoon at 2:20 o'clock. At this time several of the problems of the annual were brought up and discussed. The problem of cuts for the annual was discussed and it was decided to take immediate action on the photographs for the annual as a reduction will be made if the pictures are all in by December 1.

This work will be handled by the Art Editors, Richard Kirby and Ella Manchester.

It was also decided to get all of the copy for the annual in at the earliest possible date in order that there will not be so much of a rush just before the Tower is published.

Mrs. J. J. Battles and little son, Joseph of Denver, Colo., arrived here yesterday noon for a visit at the home of Mrs. Battles' parents Mr. and Mrs. Miles A. Nicholas.

Why not do it now? You'll have to come across with a new range for the wife some day, anyway, so why not do it while the demonstration of the Majestic Range is on at the store of Phares Lumber & Hardware Co., all this week? 207 Prizes!

(Parents are not supposed to read this)

Dear Girls and Boys:

In a few minutes you are going to get your color-box and color the picture of Bobby Jollyco and Pinky Parker and their friends, to try to win one of the fine prizes offered at the bottom of this page.

Meantime, there is something you ought to be learning about color and soap.

Colors are pretty and sometimes they are very important. When your face is nice and pink, it shows you are healthy and strong. When your clothes are white, it shows they are clean.

But with soap, that is not always true.

Sometimes, of course, a good soap has a natural color. But it is very easy to color soap artificially —blue, pink, green, purple, yellow—any color the soap-maker may choose, just as you can color this piece of white paper.

"The natural color of the best quality of toilet soap is a creamy white"—says Dr. Pusey, one of the best known writers on the care of the skin, although he says, too, that even whiteness is not always a guarantee of purity—you must know your soap!

But why should anyone want to put bright, artificial color in a soap, if it is really fine soap?

One reason is: to make the soap look prettier. (But of course that doesn't make it clean better or feel nicer, does it?)

We could color Ivory Soap blue or pink or green or purple or yellow, if we liked—it would be just as easy as for you to color the Ivory cake in the picture. But Ivory is pure—it hasn't anything to hide and its natural color is creamy white, so why should we color it?

No, we don't color Ivory. We are proud of its purity, and we want everybody to know it, so we leave Ivory creamy white just as it is naturally.

Now, of course, because Ivory is so pure, it is very mild and gentle and can't hurt the most delicate skin. Its lather is rich and fluffy, and you can rinse it off before you can say "Jack Robinson." And in the bath-tub Ivory swims just like a white boat—you can always get it back without diving to the bottom for it.

When you are coloring the picture, be sure to leave the Ivory cake white; and when you want the very finest quality of soap for your face and hands and bath and hair, you will find it inside that familiar old black and white Ivory Soap wrapper.

PROCTER & GAMBLE

A Soapy Poem

Pinky Parker's mother gave
Her fifty cents, and said:
"Go buy a cake of fine face soap
That's nicely colored red."

So Pinky started to the store,
But on her way she found
Her neighbor, Bobby Jollyco,
With bundles homeward bound.

"What's that big one?" Pinky asked,
"A package of soap," said he.
"Oh, my! It must have cost a lot!"
"No, fifty cents. You see,

"My mother uses Ivory Soap,
She says it's pure and mild—
For face and hands and bath and hair,
For 'woman, man or child!' "

"My mother's soap is red, and yours
Just white," proud Pinky says.
"And for one little, teeny cake,
Just think of what she pays!"

"Well, I don't care what price it is,"
Comes Bobby's turn to say,
"My mother says: 'No finer soap
Than Ivory,' anyway!"

Now which is wrong and which is right?
And who shall judge this case?
Why you are judge, and jury too—
Try Ivory on your face!

IVORY SOAP

99 44/100% PURE IT FLOATS

Well, if here isn't Bobby Jollyco with a bubble-pipe just exactly like those which will be given as prizes.

"No," said Bobby as Pinky Parker offered him a cake of her mother's perfumed "comic-opera" soap, "that soap won't do. I've got some Ivory—it makes slick bubbles—anybody knows that, don't they, Jimmy?"

"Sure," agreed Jimmy Watson, "I tried some other soap the other day, and the bubbles busted right away, soon's I shook 'em off."

That's right. Ivory Soap makes wonderful bubbles, quick as a wink. And you never lose it in the water, either, because it floats.

Coloring of this picture only will be considered in awarding prizes.
